Meet the 2022 Power 100: Dealmakers

Oct 26, 2022, 9:53am CDT

Welcome back to our 2022 Power 100, the NBJ newsroom's list of the most influential people in the city's business scene.

Today, we introduce you to the Dealmakers. These power players are influential because they're behind the biggest projects, the biggest mergers, the biggest negotiations in town. But it's not just their job — they often have skin in the game. And they're prolific, driving the region's economy with their decisions.

As a reminder, Power 100 is an assessment based on our newsroom's reporting and expertise covering the region's high-powered business community to know who's driving decisions, both in the headlines and behind the scenes. We focus on who is having the greatest influence on Nashville's businesses, workforce and economy.
